Purpose

College success is underscored by college affordability. As students engage in the postsecondary planning process, Counselors and other educators should encourage them to think about college match and fit. In other words, students should consider attending colleges with high institutional graduation rates that are simultaneously a worthwhile investment. This ensures that students are set up for success in the long term. The Network for College Success finds the following student- and family-facing tools to be essential when exploring the financial viability of different college choices.

How & When to Use

Counselors and other educators should use Tool Set D with students during the college application process. The FAFSA Ready Worksheet can be paired with the Dependent Student FAFSA Checklist to help students understand and prepare to apply for financial aid. The Financial Aid Worksheet can be utilized to compare the cost of attendance at three different colleges using a student’s award letters.

Financial Aid Comparison Worksheet

This one-pager from the Illinois Student Assistance Commission can be used to compare up to three colleges in terms of out-of-pocket cost after financial aid.
When considering college options, try not to rule out any college simply because of cost. Upon completing the financial aid application process, the financial aid administrators at the colleges that you are considering will “package” all available financial aid options and send them to you for consideration.

What does it cost?

The COST OF ATTENDANCE is an estimate of expenses usually incurred by students attending a college.

The EXPECTED FAMILY CONTRIBUTION (EFC) is derived from information reported on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). It is a family’s expected ability over an academic year to absorb some of the educational costs. The financial aid office will use it to distribute need-based financial aid funds.

The difference between the Cost of Attendance and the Expected Family Contribution is the student’s TOTAL FINANCIAL NEED.

How is your financial need being met?

Students will receive FINANCIAL AID AWARD LETTERS – also referred to as OFFERS or PACKAGES – from the colleges. These letters will outline the aid that each college can offer and may include any or all of the financial aid programs listed here. It is recommended that students and parents review award letters carefully, ask questions, and meet deadlines.

Was your financial need met?

It is recommended that students and parents review award letters carefully, ask questions, and meet deadlines.
Dependent Student FAFSA Checklist

A checklist from Chicago Public Schools for dependent students so they can consider all of the required documents to complete the FAFSA.
FAFSA DOCUMENTATION CHECKLIST FOR DEPENDENT STUDENTS

Use this to ensure you have all you need to complete a FAFSA. As a dependent student you will also need the same information for the parent’s information you intend to use in completing your FAFSA (birth, adoptive, or step only.)

Take the completed checklist along with copies of documentation to your Counselor/Coach when you are ready to complete your FAFSA. Keep copies of all documentation in your file in case you need it!
